

Library Workshops to Support Research 2022 (online or in person):

Recommended to PG students, supervisors and researchers:

1. Know your library: : an overview of Library facilities / resources /services for PG students & researchers
2. Stay Away From Plagiarism! (advanced)
3. Turnitin: Originality reports
4. e-Resources (advanced searching technique and more)
5. Referencing made easy with Endnote/Mendeley/Zotero
6. Open access Institutional Repositories (IR) and Electronic Theses & Dissertations (ETDs)
7. SA databases (SA e-publications, Current & completed projects – NRF, ISAP, etc.)
8. Inter-Library Loans (ILL): saving time with WorldShare
9. Enhancing Postgraduate Environment (EPE)
10. Press-Reader (Learn how to have unlimited access to thousands of magazines and newspapers from around the world)

Recommended to senior PG students, their supervisors and researchers:

11. Publishing your results: Peer refereed and accredited journals; Open access, Copyright and use of SHERPA/RoMEO
12. How to avoid predatory publishers and journals
13. Open Access Publishing
14. Researchers' Social networking: ResearchGate, Academia.edu, Mendeley.
15. Visibility counts: Researcher ID (ORCID) and Research metrics (bibliometrics, citation metrics, Journal impact factor, Altmetrics)

The topics could be grouped together to suit specific needs and the new areas could be added on request. Venue – by arrangement or Library Computer Lab 1 (capacity 38 people)

Selection & Ordering Books Online (SOBO): ECM & GOBI

Recommended to academics